

MESH ACCEPTABLE USE POLICY

This Acceptable Use Policy (AUP) applies to the use of any Mesh Services where the user is able to upload content, whether Mesh provides the functionality directly or uses another party to provide it to the user (each, a "Mesh Service"). This AUP is designed to ensure compliance with the laws and regulations that apply to the Mesh Service. This AUP also protects the interests of all of Mesh Customers and the parties they engage with through the Mesh Services, as well as our goodwill and reputation.

By using the Mesh Services the user accepts, and agrees to abide by, all the policies in this AUP, which supplement the Mesh General Terms and Conditions.

1. Interactive Services

- 1.1. Mesh may from time to time provide interactive Services, that will enable the user to upload information / data to the Mesh Services
- 1.2. Where Mesh does provide any interactive service, Mesh will provide clear information to the user about the kind of service offered, if it is moderated and what form of moderation is used (including whether it is human or technical).
- 1.3. Mesh will do its best to assess any possible risks for users from third parties when the user uses any interactive service provided, and Mesh will decide in each case whether it is appropriate to use moderation of the relevant service (including what kind of moderation to use) in the light of those risks. However, we are under no obligation to oversee, monitor or moderate any interactive service Mesh provide on the Mesh Platform, and Mesh expressly exclude its liability for any loss or damage arising from the use of any interactive service by a user in contravention of the Mesh content standards, whether the service is moderated or not.
- 1.4. Where we do moderate an interactive service, Mesh will normally provide the user with a means of contacting the moderator, should a concern or difficulty arise.

2. Uploading Content To Our Site/Services Or Social Network Sites

- 2.1. Whenever the user upload content (including but not limited to data, text, visual - or audio content and information, User ratings or feedback related to the Services, or support requests) ("User Content") to our Services, or to make contact with other users of our Services, the user must comply with the content standards set out by paragraph 3 below.
- 2.2. The user represents and warrants that:
 - 2.2.1. the user either is the sole and exclusive owner of all User Content or the user has all rights, licenses, consents and releases necessary to grant Mesh the license to the User Content as set forth above;
 - 2.2.2. neither the User Content nor the user submission, uploading, publishing or otherwise making available of such User Content nor Mesh's use of the User Content as permitted herein will infringe, misappropriate or violate a third party's intellectual property or proprietary rights, or rights of publicity or privacy, or result in the violation of any Applicable Law.
 - 2.2.3. any such contribution does comply with those standards, and the user will be liable to Mesh and indemnify Mesh and its Affiliates for any breach of that warranty. This means the user will be responsible for any loss or damage Mesh or any third party suffer as a result of the user's breach of warranty.
- 2.3. The User retains all of the user's ownership rights in the User Content. However, by providing User Content to Mesh, the user grants Mesh a worldwide, perpetual, irrevocable, transferrable, royalty-free license, with the right to sublicense, to use, copy, modify, create derivative works of, distribute, publicly display, publicly perform, and otherwise exploit in any manner such User Content in all formats and distribution channels now known or hereafter devised (including in connection with the Services and the Mesh business and on third-party sites and services (where we use third party application providers), without further notice to or consent from the user, and without the requirement of payment to you or any other person or entity
- 2.4. Mesh has the right to use any idea or suggestion that the user makes in terms of the Mesh Services and incorporate it into our intellectual property that Mesh will own.
- 2.5. Mesh has the right to use the User Content along with other user's User Content to create Pattern Data and incorporate it into our intellectual property that Mesh will own.
- 2.6. Mesh also has the right to disclose the user's identity to any third party who is claiming that any content posted or uploaded by the user to the Mesh Platform site constitutes a violation of their intellectual property rights, or of their right to privacy. Mesh will notify the user as soon as reasonable possible on receipt of such third-party claim.
- 2.7. Mesh does not review User Content except for branding amendments and possible format changes and are not involved in the actual transactions between the various Customers / Participants and their respective Authorised Users. As most of the User Content on the Mesh Platform comes from the Customers and their Authorised Users, Mesh does not guarantee the accuracy of User Content or user communications or the quality, safety, or legality of what's offered. In no event does Mesh accepts liability for any description of the User Content of any unlawful, threatening, abusive, defamatory, obscene or indecent information, or material of any kind which violates or infringes upon the rights of any other person, including without limitation any transmissions constituting or encouraging conduct that would constitute a criminal offense, give rise to civil liability or otherwise violate any Applicable Law.

- 2.8. We have the right to remove any posting the user makes on the Mesh Platform if, in Mesh's sole opinion, the user's post does not comply with the content standards set out in this policy.
- 2.9. The views expressed by other users on the Mesh Platform do not represent Mesh and its representatives' views or values.
- 2.10. The user is solely responsible for securing and backing up User Content.

3. Content Standards

- 3.1. These content standards apply to any and all material which the user contribute to the Mesh Platform or any site (including social network site) Mesh may make available (contributions), and to any interactive services associated with it.
